Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hunt,

Thank you so much for buying this building for us to use! I'm pretty sure everyone else is thankful, too. If you hadn't bought this place, I would have been stuck homeschooling! Thanks for saving me from that.

My parents are really grateful, too. They would have had to put up with me all day, every day! I think you may have made some brownie points on God's part. He's probably really proud that he created someone so generous.

Sincerely,

Megan Brumagin
